

MONEY3 APPOINTS KATE ROBB AS INDEPENDENT NON EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Money3 Corporation Limited (ASX: MNY) (“Money3” or the “Company”), the specialist non-bank credit provider, is pleased to announce the appointment of experienced financial services professional Kate Robb as Independent, Non-Executive Director.

Ms Robb will also chair Money3’s Audit and Risk Committee.

Ms Robb is a Chartered Accountant with more than 20 years of governance, risk management and compliance experience including senior management roles. She has worked for ASX-listed and privately-owned entities across several sectors including utilities, financial services, telecommunications, manufacturing and local government.

Since 2015, Ms Robb has worked for AGL Energy, holding several roles with a focus on risk policy and compliance. Prior to that, she was Audit Director for the ANZ Banking Group. Earlier roles included Manager Audit and Risk with Commander Communications, and Manager Risk and Business Performance with United Energy, as well as several roles with PricewaterhouseCoopers, where she commenced her accountancy career.

Ms Robb has served in board positions for several not-for-profit and community-based organisations, including Sandringham’s Community Bendigo Bank , where she was a director, chair of the audit committee and company secretary, and disability services charity Carinya Society.

Money3 Chairman Stuart Robertson said the Company was pleased to appoint a candidate with Ms Robb’s level of experience in risk management and compliance.

Mr Robertson said, “Kate has demonstrated a high level of skill across these areas and we look forward to benefiting from her experience as Money3 continues to grow.”
